No. 2019/49

18 November 2019

Application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide (The Gambia v. Myanmar)

Request for the indication of provisional measures

The Court to hold public hearings from Tuesday 10 to Thursday 12 December 2019

THE HAGUE, 18 November 2019. The International Court of Justice (ICJ), the principal judicial organ of the United Nations, will hold public hearings in the case concerning Application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide (The Gambia v. Myanmar) from Tuesday 10 to Thursday 12 December 2019, at the Peace Palace in The Hague, the seat of the Court.

The hearings will be devoted to the request for the indication of provisional measures submitted by the Republic of The Gambia (see press release No. 2019/47 of 11 November 2019).

Schedule for the hearings

First round of oral observations

Tuesday 10 December 2019 10 a.m.-1 p.m.: Republic of The Gambia

Wednesday 11 December 2019 10 a.m.-1 p.m.: Republic of the Union of Myanmar

Second round of oral observations

Thursday 12 December 2019 10 a.m.-11.30 a.m.: Republic of The Gambia

4.30 p.m.-6 p.m.: Republic of the Union of Myanmar

Multimedia

The hearings will be streamed live and on demand (VOD) in English and French on the Court's website (www.icj-cij.org/en/multimedia-index) as well as on UN Web TV, the United Nations online television channel. Still photographs of the hearings will be posted on the ICJ website and the Court's Twitter feed (@CIJ_ICJ) along with selected high-resolution video footage (b-roll).

All ICJ photographs and videos are available free of charge, for non-commercial editorial use.

For information regarding the accreditation/admission procedures for the hearings, as well as the video streaming options (low and high resolution) and practical information for the media, please see below.

A. Admission procedures

Owing to the limited number of seats available in the Great Hall of Justice, priority access will be given to representatives of the States Parties to the case, and to members of the diplomatic corps.

1. Members of the diplomatic corps

The Information Department requests members of the diplomatic corps who plan to attend the hearings to notify it accordingly before midnight on Thursday 28 November 2019 (The Hague time), by e-mail to confirmation@icj-cij.org.

2. Members of the public

A number of seats will be allocated to members of the public on a first-come, first-served basis. There will be no advance registration procedure, and admission requests submitted beforehand will not be considered.

3. Media representatives

Media representatives are subject to a compulsory online accreditation procedure, which will close at midnight on Thursday 28 November 2019 (The Hague time). Requests submitted after this deadline will not be considered.

B. Further practical information for the media

1. Verbatim records of the hearings

Verbatim records of the oral observations will be published on the Court's website. On the final day of the hearings, a press release will be issued presenting the submissions of the Parties. Please note that the Court's press releases do not constitute official documents.

2. Entry to the Peace Palace

The Press Room will be open one and a half hours prior to the start of hearings and will close one hour after they conclude. Accredited media representatives must bring with them their personal ID and press card. They are asked to arrive at the Peace Palace gates one hour prior to the start of each hearing, at the latest. Only duly accredited individuals with valid identification will be permitted to enter the Peace Palace grounds.

3. Parking at the Peace Palace, satellite vehicles

No parking is allowed on the Peace Palace grounds apart from satellite vehicles. Media wishing to park satellite vehicles are requested to fill in the appropriate fields in the online accreditation form. Televised media wishing to broadcast the hearings live should contact the Information Department as soon as possible to make the necessary arrangements. Satellite vehicle technicians/drivers will be informed in due course of the access times for the Peace Palace grounds.

4. Access to the courtroom

Photographers and camera crews will only be permitted to enter the courtroom a few minutes before the opening of the first round of oral observations of each Party. They will be accompanied by a member of the Information Department.

5. Press Room

The hearings will be transmitted live on a large screen, in English and French, in a press room equipped with a shared internet access (Wi-Fi, Ethernet). TV crews can connect to the Court's PAL (HD and SD) and NTSC (SD) audio-visual system and radio reporters to the audio system.

6. Videos, still photographs

Video files (SD/MPEG2 and HD/MPEG4) and still photos produced by the Registry during the hearings will be available free of charge, for non-commercial use, at the close of the hearings (to download, click on www.icj-cij.org/en/multimedia-index).

7. Other media services

For further practical information (on requests for interviews, TV stand-up positions, audio and video outputs available, etc.), please visit the Court's website. Click on "Press Room", and then on "Media Services".

The International Court of Justice (ICJ) is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations. It was established by the United Nations Charter in June 1945 and began its activities in April 1946. The Court is composed of 15 judges elected for a nine-year term by the General Assembly and the Security Council of the United Nations. The seat of the Court is at the Peace Palace in The Hague (Netherlands). The Court has a twofold role: first, to settle, in accordance with international law, legal disputes submitted to it by States (its judgments have binding force and are without appeal for the parties concerned); and, second, to give advisory opinions on legal questions referred to it by duly authorized United Nations organs and agencies of the system.
